I had a positive experience working with LegalEase. I started working with LegalEase in July. Our project required flexibility because the focus changed as we progressed. I was impressed with the attorneys' ability to switch gears and move between different practice areas and jurisdictions. Even when I was not able to provide specific feedback, the team kept the project moving forward.

During the course of the project, I have found the LegalEase team to be professional and very pleasant to work with. Client experience is very important to them and you will see this right from onboarding to their reporting style and feedback calls.
